Roe Class looking for (bible) clues

- Roe Class went out to look for the clues to help them talk about the bible story, "The Woman at the Well".

A sandal

"The sandal is being Jesus."
HS

"The woman is the scarf because the lady was wearing it to stop her being sunburnt."
SD

A scarf

What did we find?

Some sand

"The sand is telling us it was a hot day and Jesus was the water." TA

A jug

"The jug gets the water from the well."
AI

A Bible

"We can find this story in the Bible."
CC

a man

The woman did not want to be seen. She made some bad choices. Why did Jesus speak to her?

"It's the well where Jesus was waiting."

A cross

Water

"The water - the lady came to collect it." AO

Roe Class Time for drumming!

Fallow's turn to bang and bash!

Muntjac and Sika too!

Time for singing

We had lots of different ideas connected to our school vision and used these to create new verses for our version of Song for Wiltshire Schools

Fallow Class

Rainbow Trout in the rippling river,

Birds swooping in the sparkling sunlight,

Sharing water with wildlife,

Bulrush banks supporting us.

Muntjac Class

Pigeons nesting in the forest,

Muntjac deer hiding in undergrowth

Fish on their journey in the river

Signposts and bridges guide us around.

We had lots of different ideas connected to our school vision and used these together to create new verses for our song

Sika Class

Fairyland forest full of birds gliding

Nearby, the River Kennet is winding

Sika deer who trot and forage

Near the school where we thirst for knowledge

Chorus (taken from the song)

Together, Together,

In homes and towns, round Salisbury Plain,

Our voices apart, but our song's the same,

Together, Together.
